

shall not be entitled to vote with the Mayor and Aldermen of the City of Annapolis. He shall receive a salary of Five Hundred Dollars a year payable monthly, shall attend at the meetings of the said Mayor and Aldermen, shall attend to all the law business of said City, and shall advise the Mayor and Aldermen as to all legal matters at such time or times as he may be called upon so to do. He shall not be authorized to employ any other attorney to assist him in his legal work without the consent of the Mayor and Aldermen of said City first had and obtained, and in no case shall the compensation of the attorney especially employed exceed the sum of Five Hundred Dollars in any one case.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That the name and style of the Corporation of the City of Annapolis be and the same is hereby changed from "Mayor, Counselor and Aldermen of the City of Annapolis," to "Mayor and Aldermen of the City of Annapolis," and wherever in the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland, title "Anne Arundel County," sub-title "Annapolis," or the ordinances passed in pursuance thereof, the words "Mayor, Counselor and Aldermen of the City of Annapolis" appear, said words shall be read "Mayor and Aldermen of the City of Annapolis."

3. Nominations for a Mayor and two Aldermen from each Ward in the City of Annapolis shall be made by direct vote of the respective political parties at Primary Elections to be held in the City of Annapolis on the third Tuesday of April in each year in which the Municipal Elections in the City of Annapolis are to be held, excepting as hereinafter provided for the year 1933. The Primary Elections for the year 1933 shall be held on the second Tuesday in June, 1933. All provisions as laid down in Article 33 of the Code of Public General Laws of Maryland, title "Elections," shall apply to all Primary Elections held in the City of Annapolis.

4. The Mayor and Aldermen of the City of Annapolis, shall on the second Tuesday of February, every three years, beginning in 1936, appoint three persons who shall be residents and voters of the City of Annapolis, two of whom shall always be selected from the leading political parties of the State, one from each of said parties. They shall be persons of approved integrity and capacity and none of them shall hold elective office, and they must not be candidates for office during their term of office. They shall be constituted the Board of Supervisors of Election of the City of Annapolis, each of said Supervisors shall