

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section 395 of Article 17 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland (1930 Edition), title "Prince George's County," sub-title "Eagle Harbor," be and the same is hereby repealed and re-enacted with amendments so as to read as follows:

395. The Commissioners may pass such ordinances, not inconsistent with law, as may be for the best interests of the town, and necessary for the preservation of health, safety and morals of the said town, and may provide in such ordinances the penalties and punishments for the violation thereof, and may provide for the enforcement of said ordinances by a prosecution before any Justice of the Peace of Prince George's County. The said Commissioners shall have supervision over all sidewalks, streets and alleys of the said town, but shall not in any way interfere with the lawful public use of any county roads running through the said town. The Commissioners shall have power to require all persons, firms or corporations conducting places of business in Eagle Harbor to make an application to said Commissioners for a permit to conduct such business as the applicant may designate and shall have power to charge said applicant for a permit to conduct such business a license fee, the amount of which fee shall be fixed from time to time by said Commissioners but which shall in no event exceed ten dollars; provided, that, no person, firm or corporation shall conduct a place of business in Eagle Harbor unless a permit so to do has been granted by said Commissioners to such person, firm or corporation. The Commissioners shall have power to regulate the location, erection or repair of buildings in Eagle Harbor in accordance with the public health, welfare and safety and to provide, by ordinance, for the granting of permits therefor. For the purpose of town taxation the Commissioners shall adopt the county assessment of all real estate, and shall make up a full and complete list of the said property in the said town with the names and addresses of the owners thereof on or before the first day of July of each year. As soon thereafter as it is practicable, the said Commissioners shall by ordinance levy a tax not to exceed twenty-five cents (25c) per one hundred dollars ($100) on such assessed real estate as the needs of the town may require. Said tax shall be levied as of July first of each year, which is hereby declared to be the beginning of the fiscal year of the said town, and shall be in default on the first day of October of each year, and shall
