

provided, however, that such note shall be paid when due and shall not be renewed and no new note shall be issued until the note of the previous year has been paid in full.

And provided further that at no time may a sum in excess of Fifteen Hundred Dollars ($1,500.00) and the interest thereon be due and owing by the said the Commissioners of Betterton upon a note or notes which may be issued hereunder, whether said note or notes shall be original or renewal.

66B. The said the Commissioners of Betterton in Kent County, Maryland, are hereby authorized to discount said note or notes or to sell said note or notes issued under the provisions of Section 66 either at public or private sale, for the most money which can be obtained for the same, provided that no private sale of said note or notes shall be for less than par, and if at public sale under such conditions and terms as said the Commissioners of Betterton may prescribe.

66C. In order to pay the said note or notes which may be issued from time to time under the provisions of the two preceding sections, together with interest thereon, the Commissioners of Betterton are hereby authorized and directed to pay the same out of the taxes collected in said town of Betterton in the year in which said note or notes may from time to time be issued and/or fall due, and if the taxes so collected as aforesaid, shall be insufficient for the purpose, the said the Commissioners of Betterton are hereby authorized and directed to levy upon all the assessable property in said town, a sum sufficient to pay the said note or notes together with all interest accrued thereon.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act, is hereby declared to be an emergency law and necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health and safety, and being passed upon a ye and nay vote supported by three-fifths of all the members elected to each of the two Houses of the General Assembly, the same shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved March 31, 1933.

CHAPTER 151.

AN ACT to add two new sections to Article 77 of the Annotated Code of Public General Laws of Maryland, title "Public Education," sub-title "County Board of Educa-