

penses of sale, costs, and fees on property purchased by the Board of County Commissioners for such year remaining unredeemed at the time of issuance of such new certificates, but all such certificates of indebtedness shall mature within the time herein limited for the maturity of the original certificates of indebtedness. Said Board of County Commissioners shall by resolution fix the form of such certificates of indebtedness, the officers by whom they shall be executed, the amounts, the medium of payment and the place or places in Maryland or elsewhere at which they shall be payable. Such certificates of indebtedness may be renewed from time to time by endorsement thereon or new certificates of indebtedness may be issued from time to time for the payment of such certificates issued hereunder as may mature and all such new certificates may be issued in the same manner as herein provided not exceeding the total principal of the maturing certificates and shall mature within the time herein limited for the maturity of the original certificates of indebtedness. All money received from the redemption and from the sale of property sold for taxes and/or special assessments in any year shall be kept in a separate fund, identified by the year in which the sale for taxes and/or special assessments is made and designated as "19..... Tax Sale Fund," and shall be applied solely to the payment of the principal and interest of certificates of indebtedness and renewals thereof or new certificates, issued in anticipation of the receipt of such monies. The County Commissioners may purchase or redeem before maturity any of such certificates offered. In each year in which property is sold for taxes and/or special assessments there shall be included in the annual tax levy an amount sufficient to pay one year's interest on all certificates of indebtedness authorized or to be authorized by said Board in anticipation of the receipt of monies from the redemption and from the sale of property sold for such taxes and/or special assessments. In each year thereafter there shall be included in the annual tax levy an amount sufficient to provide for the payment of the principal and the interest of all certificates of indebtedness as the same shall fall due, provided, however, that the amount of such tax may be reduced by the amount received into the fund which is pledged to the payment of such certificates of indebtedness. After the payment of the principal and interest of all certificates of indebtedness issued in anticipation of the receipt of money from the redemption and sale of property sold for taxes and/or special assessments in any year, all funds received from the sale or redemption
