

note or notes issued under the provisions of Section 63A, either at public or private sale, for the most money it can obtain for the same, provided that no private sale of said note or notes shall be for less than par, and if at public sale, under such conditions as said County Commissioners of Worcester County may prescribe.

63C. In order to pay the said note or notes which may be issued from time to time hereunder, together with the interest thereon, the County Commissioners of Worcester County are hereby authorized and directed to pay the same out of the taxes collected in said County in the year in which said note or notes may, from time to time, be issued and/or fall due, and if the taxes so collected as aforesaid shall be insufficient for the purpose, the said County Commissioners of Worcester County are hereby authorized and directed to levy upon all the assessable property in said County a sum sufficient to pay the said note or notes, with all interest accrued thereon.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That this Act is hereby declared to be an emergency law and necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health and safety, and having been passed by a yea and nay vote, supported by three-fifths of all the members elected to each of the two Houses of the General Assembly, the same shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved February 17, 1933.
