

(1930 Edition), title "Somerset County," sub-title "County Commissioners," said new section to be known as Section 34A, to follow immediately after Section 34 of said Article, and to read as follows:

34A. The said County Commissioners are hereby authorized and empowered, in their discretion, to borrow on the faith and credit of Somerset County, such sum or sums of money as may be needed for county purposes which have been provided for in the levy or levies, not to exceed at any one time fifty per cent. of the amount of taxes which have been levied but remain uncollected and to issue a note or notes therefor; provided the lender shall not be required to see to the proper application of the money loaned.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act is hereby declared to be an emergency law and necessary for the immediate preservation of the public safety, and being passed by a "yea" and "nay" vote, supported by three-fifths of all the members elected to each of the two Houses of the General Assembly, the same shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved February 17, 1933.

CHAPTER 9.

AN ACT to authorize and direct the Board of County Commissioners of Washington County to borrow upon the faith and credit of said county to the amount of $55,000.00 and to issue and sell coupon bonds therefor, the proceeds thereof to be used for purchasing, acquiring, or condemning a site and for the constructing, building, equipping and furnishing of a school building on said site in the Town of Sharpsburg, and for erecting an addition to the Sandy Hook School and equipping and furnishing same, and to provide for the payment of interest on said bonds and of the principal thereof by the levy of taxes, and to repeal Chapters 135 and 386 of the Acts of 1931.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Board of County Commissioners of Washington County be and they are hereby authorized and
