

of vice and immorality and for the apprehension of vagrants. Said Common Council may pass all ordinances necessary to carry out and enforce the foregoing provisions and to give full force and effect to the powers and authority conferred on said corporation and may enforce said ordinances by reasonable fines and penalties; it may recover said fines and penalties by action of debt. Said Council shall also have the power to fix the compensation of the Treasurer of said town. The Mayor and Common Council may appoint council to legally advise the Mayor and Council and represent the town in any and all Court proceedings at such compensation as it thinks proper; it may employ a Health Officer who shall be charged with the duty of preserving the public health and shall have full power and authority to quarantine and enforce such other preventive measures as are reasonable and necessary; it may provide by ordinance for the opening and closing of streets; it may provide by ordinance for the width and grade of streets and sidewalks and the construction of same; it may provide by ordinance for the setting out of shade trees, the trimming and removal of trees, vines or shrubbery on or along any street or sidewalk, alleys or lanes; it may regulate the keeping of swine, cattle, dogs, fowls, pigeons and rabbits within the town of Riverdale; the Mayor and Common Council may appoint a building, a plumbing and an electrical inspector and issue permits for building, plumbing and electrical work, within said town; it may pass ordinances regulating construction, repair and alteration of buildings within said towns and fix the charge for permits for such work; it may provide for and maintain fire fighting apparatus within said town.

Section 10A. Be it further enacted, That the Town Treasurer shall be the collector of taxes and shall have power to enforce payment of said taxes by sale of the property liable therefor, and to convey a good title to any such property sold by him. The Town Treasurer shall prepare after the first day of January of each year, a list of all taxes in default levied by the said Mayor and Council upon real estate upon which said assessments have been levied commencing with the tax year 1933. Said list shall set out, respectively the name or names of the owners of the real estate so listed; a fair description of each piece of real estate sufficient to notify the owner or owners thereof that it is his, her or their property which is advertised; the amount of the taxes and interest, penalties and costs for