

CHAPTER 184.

AN ACT to add a new section to Article 17 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland (1930 Edition), title "Prince George's County," sub-title "Cemeteries," said new section to be known as Section 193A and to follow immediately after Section 193 of said Article, prohibiting the establishment of cemeteries within a certain area in Prince George's County.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That a new section be and it is hereby added to Article 17 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland (1930 Edition), title "Prince George's County," sub-title "Cemeteries," said new section to be known as Section 193A, to follow immediately after Section 193 of said Article, and to read as follows:

193A. It shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation hereafter to establish any cemetery within the area bounded as follows:

Beginning at the intersection of the Metropolitan area and the District of Columbia line at its most southerly point; thence along said Metropolitan area line to the Marlboro Pike; thence along the said Pike to Meadows; thence to Camp Springs by way of the concrete State Road; thence north along the Southern Maryland Pike to Henson Branch; thence down the said branch to the Fort Washington State Road; thence with the said road to the Fort Washington Reservation and the Potomac River; thence up said river in a northeasterly direction to the District of Columbia and Maryland boundary line; thence along said line to the place of beginning.

Provided, however, that this section shall not be construed to prohibit the establishment of so-called family burying grounds of reasonable area or grave-yards or cemeteries of established churches holding regular services therein. Any person violating the provisions of this section shall, upon conviction, be subject to a penalty of not more than One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00) for each such violation.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1933.

Approved April 21, 1933.
