

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That all laws or parts of laws inconsistent with the provisions of this Act be and the same are hereby repealed to the extent of such inconsistencies.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1933.

Approved April 21, 1933.

CHAPTER 189.

AN ACT to add a new section to Article 56 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1929 Supplement), title "Licenses," sub-title "Revocation," said new section to be known as Section 123A and to follow immediately after Section 123 of said Article, to provide that the Boards of County Commissioners in Allegany and Washington Counties have authority to revoke trader's licenses granted under Section 42 of said Article in certain instances, and to provide certain conditions before the re-issuance of such licenses or the issuance of any other license to carry on the same business at the same place, and to provide an appeal from the action of the Board of County Commissioners, and that such appeal shall not operate as a stay.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That a new section be and the same is hereby added to Article 56 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1929 Supplement), title "Licenses," sub-title "Revocation," said new section to follow immediately after Section 123 of said Article, to be known as Section 123A and to read as follows:

123A. The Boards of County Commissioners in and for Allegany and Washington Counties shall have authority to revoke licenses granted under Section 42 to any firm, person or corporation maintaining a place in such counties for the sale to the public of gasoline, oil or grease for use in motor vehicles, should the holder of such license, or any of his or its agents and employees have been found guilty before a Justice of the Peace, or in any Criminal Court of this State, of fraud in the sale of gasoline, oil or grease,