

is hereby repealed and re-enacted with amendments to read as follows:

702. On and after July 1, 1929, it shall be unlawful to maintain or operate a road house, restaurant, lunch-room, cafe, inn, hotel or club for profit where public dancing is permitted more than once a week in Prince George's County without first having obtained a license from the Board of County Commissioners of said county, and shall pay for said license one hundred dollars ($100) per year.

Before any license shall be granted under the provisions of this section, application shall be made in writing to the said Board of County Commissioners, and a notice of such application, or applications, giving the name or names, of the applicant or applicants, the location and nature of the proposed business or enterprise in each instance and notifying all persons to file protests or appear before the said Board on or before a day to be named therein, shall be published at the expense of the applicant or applicants in a newspaper of general circulation within Prince George's County at least two weeks prior to the granting of any license hereunder.

The said Board of County Commissioners shall have the power to grant or reject any application for a license under the provisions of this section, and shall also have the power, after notice and a hearing, to revoke any license granted hereunder; but if any license is revoked, a refund shall be given for the unused portion of said license.

All licenses shall expire on July 1 each year. The proceeds from said licenses shall be paid to the County Treasurer and be used for general County purposes.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1933.

Approved April 21, 1933.

CHAPTER 196.

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact, with amendments, Section 160 of Offutt's Revised Code of the Public Local Laws of Baltimore County, Edition of 1929, title No. 14, "County Treasurer," (Flack's Code, 1930, Article 3, Section 160), as repealed and re-enacted, with amendments,
