

a list shall be made and a certificate thereto appended by the said judges that the said list of names has been duly selected in conformity with and according to the spirit and intent of this Article, and which said list and certificates shall be filed with the clerk of the said court and by him preserved as other proceedings of said court are kept; and no property qualification shall be required in any juror draws as herein provided.

Section 391AA. It shall be the duty of the County Commissioners of Baltimore County to have made out and filed with the Clerk of the Circuit Court for said county, within such reasonable time as the Judges of the Circuit Court for Baltimore County, or any one of them, may limit, a list of the taxable inhabitants and/or residents of said county for use in the selection of jurors, compiled from such sources and setting forth such information and incidental details as in the discretion of said Judges or Judge may seem desirable and proper; such list shall be made under the direct supervision of the Chief Clerk and Auditor to the County Commissioners and before filing he shall append thereto a certificate over his signature to the effect that such list is fully and fairly made in accordance with the direction of the Court. The Court may in its discretion direct the revision of an existing list in lieu of a new one, if such procedure is deemed expedient. The Judges of the Circuit Court for Baltimore County shall communicate their instructions and/or directions to the County Commissioners in regard to this section in writing, and not otherwise.

Section 391C. It shall be the duty of the Judges of the Circuit Court for Baltimore County, not less than fifteen days before the commencement of each term of said court, in the presence of such practicing members of the Bar of said court as shall think proper to attend, notice of the time and place having been first given to said Bar through the crier of said court, to proceed to select from the list last furnished by the County Commissioners of said county, provided for in Section 391AA of this Act immediately preceding this Section, and on the poll books of the several election districts of said county that shall be returned and filed in the clerk's office of said court, provided for in Section 391, a panel to consist of the names of one hundred (100) male persons to be fairly and impartially selected by said judges, with special reference to the intelligence, sobriety and in-
