CHAPTER 198.

AN ACT to extend the time for payment of certain special assessments for street improvements in the Town of Hyattsville and to authorize the Mayor and Common Council of said town to renew, re-issue, extend or refund any of the obligations of the town dependent for payment upon such special assessments.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That all special assessments heretofore levied for construction of streets, side-walks, curbs and/or gutters by the Mayor and Common Council of Hyattsville, and which are not now subject by existing law to payment over a period of ten years, are hereby ratified and confirmed, as of the effective date of the passage of this Act, as the same stand charged upon the books of the Treasurer of the Town of Hyattsville, and all of such assessments,
