

including all interest, penalties and costs accrued to the date of the effective date of the passage of this Act, are hereby relieved and assessed in the amounts so stated upon the books of the Treasurer of said Town, including interest, penalties and costs against all of the properties upon which they were originally assessed, and such amounts shall be treated as a new assessment and payable in twenty equal semi-annual installments, the first payment to be made July 1, 1933, and semi-annually on said date thereafter, with interest on all of such assessments at six per cent from the effective date of this Act until paid.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That the Treasurer of the Town of Hyattsville is hereby directed to calculate the amount due on each of said special assessments, including all interest, costs or penalties which have accrued thereon under existing law, and to restate the same upon the books of the Town as of the effective date of this Act, and to send bills by mail to the last known address of each of the persons or property owners affected by the provisions of this Act, advising such property owners that said assessment is relieved as above and that the same may be paid in twenty equal semi-annual installments, beginning July 1, 1933, and such assessment shall be restated by said Treasurer, notwithstanding the property upon which they were levied has been sold for default in the payment thereof or has been or is being advertised for sale for default in the payment thereof, and in the event any property assessed and sold has been purchased at said sale by a purchaser other than the Town of Hyattsville, the Treasurer of said Town is hereby authorized and directed to refund the amount of said purchase in so far as it applies to said assessments, and to cancel said sale and restate said assessment as above.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That all of said special assessments as relieved and restated shall be in default, shall bear the same penalties, and shall be collected in the same manner as are now provided for by existing law, and shall continue to be a lien upon the property against which they are levied and assessed as now provided by law, and nothing herein shall be construed to affect the validity of such lien or the effectiveness of such sale for default on future installments.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That the Mayor and Common Council of Hyattsville are hereby authorized and
