

the time of application each applicant shall pay to the Clerk the cost of the advertisement hereinafter required.

The State Comptroller shall cause standard forms for such licenses, and of applications therefor, to be printed and distributed among the Clerks of the Courts aforesaid, and the Comptroller shall account for the fees received by him, to the City of Baltimore, the incorporated town or the county, as the case may be, where the applicant is licensed to operate, less pro rata deductions for a special fund not to exceed $10,000.00 per annum, to be applied to the expenses of his office and the office of the Bureau of State Licenses, including travelling expenses, and including, also, reasonable compensation for the assistants hereinafter mentioned.

104F: Every applicant for a license of either class to sell any of the beverages aforesaid shall file with the said Clerk of the Court of Common Pleas of Baltimore City or with the Clerk of the Circuit Court of the county, as the case may be, a petition for such license which shall contain the following information and assurances:

Each application for a license shall contain (a) the name and residence of the applicant and how long he has resided within the State of Maryland; (b) the particular place for which a license is desired, designating the same by street and number, if practicable, if not, by such other apt description as definitely locates it; (c) the class of license desired; (d) the name of the owner of the premises upon which the business sought to be licensed is to be carried on; (e) a statement that the applicant is a citizen of the United States and not less than 21 years of age, and that such applicant has never been convicted of a felony or been adjudged guilty of violating the laws of the United States or of the State of Maryland governing the sale of intoxicating liquors; (f) that no brewer or manufacturer or distiller of any of the beverages herein referred to has or will have any interest, direct or indirect, in the establishment or business for which the license is sought. Each application for a license must be verified by the affidavit of the applicant, and if any applicant shall make a false statement in any part of his said application, he shall be deemed guilty of perjury, and upon conviction thereof, the license shall immediately become null and void, and the applicant be subject to the penalty provided by law for that crime.

104G: There shall be annexed to every such applica-