

The State of Maryland shall pay, as hereinafter provided, out of the General State School Fund to the treasurer of the county board of education two-thirds of the annual salaries of the supervising teachers or helping teachers required by this section. County boards of education are free to employ as many additional supervising teachers or helping teachers as in their judgment are necessary, but the State shall not share in the payment of their salaries. The State of Maryland shall pay, as hereinafter provided, to the Board of School Commissioners of Baltimore City two-thirds of the annual salaries of not more than ten supervising teachers.

(2) There shall be appointed in each county at least one attendance officer, whose duty it shall be to compel the regular attendance of children at school. Such person shall receive such compensation as the county board of education shall direct; provided that the appointment of any person as an attendance officer shall be invalid without the written approval of the State Superintendent of Schools. And provided, further, that no attendance officer, appointed under the provisions of this section or continued in office under the provisions of this section, shall be paid an annual salary of less than twelve hundred dollars ($1,200), and the State of Maryland shall pay, as hereinafter provided, out of the General State School Fund to the treasurer of the county board of education the entire annual salary of one attendance officer not to exceed twelve hundred dollars ($1,200), provided that the county board of education shall provide suitable individual means of transportation for the attendance officer. County boards of education may pay an additional amount to the attendance officer, but the State shall not share in this additional payment. County boards of education are free to employ as many additional attendance officers as in their judgment are necessary, subject to the approval of the State Superintendent of Schools, but the State shall not share in the payment of their salaries. Provided that the State Board of Education in its discretion may excuse any county from employing an attendance officer and may designate the county superintendent of schools, the supervising teacher or the helping teacher to perform the duties of the attendance officer, and when so designated the amount allowed each county for such work shall be used for general school purposes.

(3) There shall be employed in each county at least one statistical and stenographic clerk.
