CHAPTER 243.

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact with amendments Section 131 of Article 33 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1924 Edition), title "Elections," sub-title "Miscellaneous Provisions," relating to the publication of the election laws.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section 131 of Article 33 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1924 Edition), title "Elections," sub-title "Miscellaneous Provisions," be and it is hereby repealed and re-enacted with amendments, to read as follows:

131. It shall be the duty of the Attorney-General within three months after the adoption of this Article to prepare instructions and blank forms necessary for the use of the officers of registration and of election created by this Article; and this Article, with said forms and instructions so prepared, and with other provisions of the constitution and laws touching the same matters, and with a proper index thereto, shall be published by the Secretary of State and shall be distributed by him to the Supervisors of Elections in quantities sufficient to supply the judges of election and other officers requiring the same. Provided, however, that the Secretary of State, in his discretion, may publish the changes in said Article and in the instructions in the form of a supplement. The expenses of printing shall be paid from the treasury of the State and the sum of one thousand dollars per annum, or so much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated out of any funds in the treasury for such printing and for the employment of any necessary clerical help in preparing and attending to election business by this Article assigned to the office of the Attorney-General and that of the Secretary of State. A price shall be fixed by the Secretary of State at which copies may be furnished to purchasers.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1933.

Approved April 21, 1933.
