

absence, disability or any other cause, the same shall be filled by appointment by the remaining Delegates to said Convention, provided that any person selected to fill a vacancy shall be a resident of the same District in which the deceased, disqualified, or absent Delegate had his residence, and shall before his appointment declare his intention to vote in accordance with the expressed intention of the duly elected Delegate whose place in the Convention he is selected to fill.

SEC. 11. And be it further enacted, That the Convention shall be the judge of election and qualification of its members and shall have the power to elect its President, Secretary and such other officers as it may deem necessary. The said Convention shall also have power to adopt rules for the transaction of the business of said Convention.

SEC. 12. And be it further enacted, That the Convention shall keep a Journal of its proceedings in which shall be recorded the vote of each Delegate on the question of the ratification of the proposed amendment, which said Journal shall be filed with and remain in the office of the Secretary of State at Annapolis.

SEC. 13. And be it further enacted, That if a majority of the total number of Delegates to said Convention shall vote for the ratification of the proposed amendment, a certificate to that effect shall be executed by the President and Secretary of the Convention and transmitted to the Secretary of State of this State who shall transmit the said certificate under the Great Seal of the State of Maryland to the Secretary of State of the United States.

SEC. 14. And be it further enacted, That no Delegate to said Convention shall receive any compensation or reimbursement for expenses incurred in connection with his election or attendance at said Convention.

SEC. 15. And be it further enacted, That the Judges and Clerks of Election who shall act at the special election provided for by this Act, shall be entitled to receive as compensation for their services in connection with said election, one-third of the compensation paid to such officials at the Presidential Election of 1932. The respective Boards of Supervisors of Elections shall have full power