

out the provisions of this section, the said Chief Assessor shall have power to appoint such competent assistant or associates, to be approved by the County Commissioners, as the work of his department may require, provided that the total compensation and expense thereof shall be limited as follows: One assistant or associate assessor at a salary not exceeding Twelve Hundred Dollars ($1,200.) a year, and one clerk at a salary not exceeding Twelve Hundred Dollars ($1,200.00) a year, whose duties shall also include such services in connection with the issuing of building permits as the County Commissioners may prescribe. The Chief Assessor shall receive the annual salary now allowed him by law, in addition to which the County Commissioners shall allow a fee or commission, not exceeding $1.50 per thousand dollars on all assessments of new or missed property, the said commission or fee to be paid to the said Chief Assessor and his assistant or associates in such equitable proportions as the said County Commissioners shall by regulation prescribe, which payment shall cover, also, all incidental expenses whatsoever in connection with the said assessing department.

Provided, that this section shall not become operative during the term of office for which the incumbent treasurer of Anne Arundel County was elected, as further indicated in Section 499 of this Act.

499. The said treasurer shall be entitled to receive as full compensation for his services as such treasurer and as collector of all county, state and school taxes, as well as all other taxes, an annual salary of Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.) for and during his term of office and until his successor shall have been duly elected and qualify, and he shall employ such clerks or assistants of his own selection for conducting the work of his office as the said work may require, the salary of not more than five of said clerks to be paid by the County Commissioners of said County in such reasonable amounts, not exceeding in the aggregate Sixty-five Hundred Dollars ($6,500.), as said County Commissioners may determine,—it being the intent and purpose of this section that the treasurer shall always be a full time officer and be in personal attendance regularly upon the duties of his office; and no extra compensation of any kind whatsoever shall be allowed said treasurer or be claimed or received by him, directly or indirectly. If the treasurer, or any clerk, agent or deputy shall violate this section, or any other section of this Act, the person so
