

Charter, the ordinances and the requirements of the Commissioners, and to account for all moneys coming into his hands belonging to said town, and to pay over the same to the said Commissioners when they present their warrant or voucher therefore, or to his successor in office. He shall collect the taxes and water rents levied by the President and Commissioners of Princess Anne under the annual levy, whether said annual levy be in accordance with their own assessments or those adopted and copied by them from the books of the County Commissioners' office, and make settlement with the Town Commissioners for all water rents and town taxes collected by him under such levy, within three months after receiving such levy, and he shall make monthly statements of the same thereafter. He shall at the end of six months next after the levy is received by him, return a list of insolvents so far as ascertained by him, and at the end of twelve months he shall return his final list of insolvents.

At the end of six months from date levy is due, one half of the solvent taxes and water rents shall be settled for with the President and Commissioners of Princess Anne including all the amounts paid thereunder, at the end of nine months one fourth shall be paid in addition, and at the end of twelve months the whole levy, less insolvents allowed, shall be settled with the President and Commissioners of Princess Anne. After he has paid to the Commissioners any charges for water rent or town taxes included in the levy or list of water rents due, he shall be entitled to enforce payment of the same in all respects as if the Commissioners had not been paid. Besides the mode in the Charter provided for enforcing the payment of delinquents, either taxes or water rents, after he has paid any claim on account of taxes or water rent, he may bring an action at law for money paid against the party liable for such water rent or town taxes, if he so elects, and he may maintain such action as long as the account or claim is not barred by the statute of limitations, without regard to the expiration of his official term or the extension of same.

317B. On the first Monday of July, 1934, and on each first Monday in July in each and every succeeding year thereafter, the President and Commissioners of Princess Anne shall appoint two competent accountants, taking them from one or more of the Banks of the County, or from those who have had experience as bank accountants, whose duty it shall be to make a careful examination of the books and vouchers of said "Town Clerk, Treasurer and Collector
