

Sheriff of Carroll County shall receive and confine the party so committed in the same manner as other prisoners.

Section 76A. The Mayor and Council are authorized and directed and are given full power and authority to provide for the revision and codification of all its ordinances heretofore passed or which may hereafter be passed, and to provide for the payment of the same, and to by ordinance approve and adopt said revision and codification as a whole, as and for the ordinances then existing and in force in the town of Hampstead. And said ordinances, so revised and codified, when adopted and approved by the Mayor and Council, shall be evidence of said ordinances in any count of this State, or before any Justice of the Peace, and a printed copy thereof, published by the authority of the Mayor and Council, shall be received in evidence and have the same force and validity as the original. All ordinances passed before or after the adoption of such codification may also be proven by either the original or the record thereof in the book provided by the Mayor and Council for recording them.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That all Acts or parts of Acts inconsistent with the foregoing provisions be and the same are hereby repealed.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect on the first day of June, 1933.

Approved April 21, 1933.

CHAPTER 328.

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact with amendments, Sections 26 and 27 of Article 56 of Bagby's Annotated Code of Maryland, title "Licenses," sub-title "Hawkers and Peddlers," exempting Kent County from the provisions of the State-wide Law providing when hawkers' and peddlers' licenses are necessary to be obtained and the amount to be paid for such license when required to be issued.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Sections 26 and 27 of Article 56 of Bagby's Annotated Code of Maryland, title "Licenses," sub-title "Hawkers' and Peddlers," be and the same is hereby re-
