

as clerk to their board a person of integrity and judgment, who shall have been trained in the matter of bookkeeping and who shall be skillful with respect to the keeping of accounts, and who shall hold his office until his successor is appointed and qualified. In addition to the duties now imposed upon the said clerk by law he shall make frequent inspection of the records of the county Treasurer, shall check all reports submitted by the county Treasurer to the County Commissioners and shall keep the County Commissioners fully informed as to the fiscal affairs of the county. He shall also perform such other duties as may be required of him by the County Commissioners. He shall be removable at the pleasure of the County Commissioners and shall receive as compensation for his services as such clerk an annual salary not to exceed one thousand dollars, to be levied for by the said Commissioners as is usual in such cases, and payable monthly by said Commissioners, and he shall receive no extra or other compensation or fees of any kind for the duties now imposed upon himself by law, by the provisions of this Act or otherwise, which may properly appertain to his office. He shall upon application exhibit the books, papers, and levies in his office and make certified copies or extracts thereof for any person demanding the same, and charge for the same, for the use of the county, such fees as are chargeable by the Clerk of the Circuit Court for similar work, and such copies, under the seal of the County Commissioners, shall be evidence to the same extent as the originals would be if produced in proceedings in court or otherwise; all fees received from this source, however, shall be accounted for to the County Commissioners by the said clerk.

83. Said County Commissioners shall attend at the office of the Board of County Commissioners of Calvert County each and every Tuesday from 10 A. M. to 3 P. M. Said clerk shall attend at said office for the transaction of the business thereof every day, except Sundays and legal holidays, from nine o'clock in the forenoon to four o'clock in the afternoon, unless prevented by sickness, accident or necessity.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1933.

Approved April 21, 1933.
