

"Miscellaneous," defining "Employee" and exempting certain employments from the operations of said Article.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section 65, Sub-division (3) of Article 101 of the Annotated Code of the Public General Laws of Maryland, Edition of 1924, title "Workmen's Compensation," sub-title "Miscellaneous," be, and the same is hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, to read as follows:

65.

(3) "Employee" means a person who is engaged in an extra-hazardous employment in the service of an employer, carrying on or conducting the same upon the premises or at a plant, or in the course of his employment away from the plant of his employer, and shall not include farm laborers. "Farm laborers," as used in this Article, shall mean any employees who, at the time of the accident, are engaged in rendering any agricultural service, including the threshing or harvesting of crops, or who, at the time of the accident, are engaged in service incidental to and in connection with agricultural pursuits or developments, whether the employer be the farmer or other person undertaking or contracting with the farmer to perform any such agricultural service, pursuit or development. This Article shall not apply to cutters of cord wood or fire wood, farm laborers, domestic servants, nor to country blacksmiths, wheelwrights or similar rural employments, unless these employments elect to come under this Article as provided in Section 33, nor in any case where the accident occurred before this Act takes effect, nor to casual employees or any employees who are employed wholly without the State. But for all purposes of this Article casual, occasional or incidental employment outside of this State by the Maryland employer of an employee or employees regularly employed by said employer within this State shall be construed to be employment within this State; provided, however, if an employee or the dependents of an employee shall receive compensation or damages under the laws of any other State, nothing herein contained shall be construed so as to permit a total compensation for the same injury greater than is provided for in this Article.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect on June 1st, 1933.

Approved April 21, 1933.
