

(1930 Edition), title "Caroline County," sub-title "County Commissioners," said new section to be known as Section 106GG, to follow immediately after Section 106G of said Article (as said section was enacted by Chapter 321 of the Acts of 1931), and to read as follows:

106GG. The County Commissioners of Caroline County are hereby authorized and empowered to temporarily borrow on promissory note or notes during the fiscal years of 1932-1933 a sum of money not to exceed $75,000.00, the same to mature and be paid not later than November first of the following year; this amount being in addition to the amount said County Commissioners were authorized to borrow for years 1932-1933 as provided in Chapter 321 of the Acts of 1931. The County Commissioners of Caroline County are hereby authorized and empowered to temporarily borrow on promissory note or notes during the fiscal years of 1933-1934 a sum of money not to exceed $90,000.00, the same to mature and be paid not later than November first of the following year; this amount being in addition to the amount said County Commissioners were authorized to borrow for years 1933-1934 as provided in Chapter 321 of the Acts of 1931. The County Commissioners of Caroline County are hereby authorized and empowered to temporary borrow on promissory note or notes during the fiscal years 1935-1936 a sum of money not to exceed $90,000.00, the same to mature and be paid not later than November first of the following year; this amount being in addition to the amount said County Commissioners were authorized to borrow for years 1935-1936 as provided in Chapter 321 of the Acts of 1931.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act is hereby declared to be an emergency law and necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health and safety, and being passed by a yea and nay vote, supported by three-fifths of all the members elected to each of the two Houses of the General Assembly, the same shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 21, 1933.
