SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Sections 243, 245, 246, 247, 248, 249, 253 and 255 of Article 17 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland (1930 Edition), title "Prince George's County," sub-title "Colmar Manor," as said sections were amended by Chapter 190 of the Acts of 1931, be and they are hereby repealed and re-enacted with amendments, to read as follows:

243. At the first election of officers held under this charter, hereby provided to be held on the second Tuesday in July, 1931, the qualified voters of said town shall elect a Mayor to serve a term of two years, and a councilman for the first ward and a councilman for the third ward, each to serve a term of two years, to be voted for by the qualified voters of their respective wards. Every two years after the second Tuesday in July, 1931, the qualified voters of the Town of Colmar Manor shall elect a Mayor, and at each successive annual election after the second Tuesday in July, 1931, the qualified voters of each ward in which there is a vacancy shall elect a councilman to serve a term of two years. All citizens of the United States of the age of twenty-one years or over who have qualified as voters of the said town as hereinafter in this charter provided shall be qualified to vote for the election of officers of the said town and at all elections provided for under this charter. The Mayor must continuously reside in said town and each councilman in his respective ward during their terms of office, and they shall receive no compensation for their services. The Mayor and councilmen hereunder shall qualify within ten days succeeding their election by taking an oath before any officer of the State of Maryland duly authorized to take an affidavit.

All elections for town purposes shall as nearly as practicable be conducted as are elections for county officers in Prince George's County, except as herein provided.

245. Annually on or before the first Monday in June, the Mayor and Council shall appoint a Board of Election Supervisors to consist of two judges and two clerks, which board shall conduct a registration to determine
