

Code of Public General Laws of Maryland, Edition of 1924, entitled "Testamentary Law," sub-title "Distribution," be, and the same hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, so as to read as follows:

127. If there be a surviving husband or a widow, as the case may be, and no child or descendant of the intestate, but the said intestate shall leave a father or mother, the surviving husband or widow, as the case may be, shall have one-half. If there be a surviving husband or widow, as the case may be, and no child or descendant of the intestate, and no parent, but the said intestate shall leave a brother or sister, or a child or descendant of a brother or sister, the surviving husband or widow, as the case may be, shall take Two Thousand Dollars ($2,000.00) or its equivalent in property, or any interest therein, at its appraised value, and one-half of the residue.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect on June 1st, 1933.

Approved April 21, 1933.

CHAPTER 387.

AN ACT to repeal Sections 446 to 456, inclusive, and Sections 458 to 473, inclusive, of the Public Local Laws of Baltimore County, as codified in Offutt's Revised Code of the Public Local Laws of Baltimore County, Edition of 1929, title No. 34, "Liquor and Intoxicating Drinks," (Flack's Code, 1930, Article 3, same sections), so as to abolish and extinguish the restrictions and prohibitions heretofore established regarding the sale of liquor, intoxicating drinks and alcoholic beverages in the areas in Baltimore County described in the sections referred to.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Sections 446, 452, 453, 454, 455, 456, 458, 459, 460, 461, 462, 463, 464, 465, 466, 467, 468, 469, 470, 471, 472 and 473 of the Public Local Laws of Baltimore County, as codified in Offutt's Revised Code of the Public Local Laws of Baltimore County, Edition of 1929, title No. 34, "Liquor and Intoxicating Drinks," (Flack's Code, 1930,
