316J. It shall be unlawful for any brewer or manufacturer or distiller of any of the beverages herein referred to to have any interest, direct or indirect, in the establishment of any business for which a retail license herein provided for has been granted. Any such brewer, manufacturer or distiller who shall violate the provisions of this section shall be punished by fine not exceeding One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00) and in addition thereto the manufacturer's license issued under the provisions of this Act to any person so convicted shall automatically stand revoked.

316K. It shall be unlawful for any licensee, holding an "Off Sale" license as herein provided to sell, barter, exchange or give away any of the herein licensed beverages for consumption upon the licensed premises. Any such licensee violating the provisions of this section shall upon conviction be punished by a fine not exceeding Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00) or imprisonment not exceeding six months in the House of Correction or in jail or both fined and imprisoned, and in addition thereto the license so issued to the person so convicted shall automatically stand revoked.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act is hereby declared to be an emergency law and necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health and safety, and having been passed on a yea and nay vote, supported by three-fifths of all the members elected to each of the two Houses of the General Assembly, the same shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 5, 1933.
