

for sale in the City of Annapolis, any intoxicating liquors except as hereinafter provided, but this shall not apply to sales made by persons under a provision of law or order or decree of a court of competent jurisdiction requiring him to sell personal property, or to sales of cider by the maker thereof not to be drunk on the premises, whenever the term intoxicating liquors is used in this and the succeeding section of this sub-title it shall be deemed to include whiskey, brandy, rum, gin, wine, ale, beer and all other fermented and distilled liquors, and every mixture of liquors which shall contain more than 3.2 per cent. by weight of alcohol; nothing in this or the succeeding sections of this sub-title shall be construed to authorize the sale of any intoxicating liquors or any admixture thereof in any part of said city where such sale now is or hereafter shall be prohibited by special law.

62A. The Mayor and Aldermen of the City of Annapolis, without the formality required by the several preceding sections, to wit: Sections 35, 36, 37, 38, 39, 40, 41 and 43, for the issuing of licenses for sale of intoxicating liquors, may issue licenses in its discretion for the sale of beer, wines and other beverages containing not more than 3.2 per cent. of alcohol by weight, to any person, firm or corporation, for the purpose of sale, to be drunk on the premises or sold in bulk in the City of Annapolis, on payment annually of the following license fees, to wit: hotels $100.00; cafes, restaurants and other places of business $75.00; incorporated social clubs, selling to bona fide members thereof and the guests of said members $35.00.

(a) And the said Mayor and Aldermen of the City of Annapolis, may in its discretion, issue licenses for sale in unbroken packages, or bulk, beer, wines and other beverages, containing not more than 3.2 per cent. alcohol by weight, not to be drunk on the premises, to any person, firm or corporation conducting stores and other business places in the said City of Annapolis, on the payment annually of $35.00 license fee. Any any person, firm or corporation conducting more than one store or place of business, shall pay a license fee of $35.00 each for two stores; all over two stores up to four stores $50.00 each, and all over four stores or places of business $75.00 each.

(b) No license shall be issued for a longer period than one year. If an application is filed for a license after the first of May of any year, the license, if issued, shall run until the first day of May of the following year. The licensee shall pay for every month for which his license is to