

run, one-twelfth of the annual charge for such license; and all such licenses shall expire on the first day of May succeeding their issue; on which day all licenses issued under this section by the said Mayor and Aldermen shall expire.

(c) Any person, firm or corporation desiring a license to sell beer, wines and other beverages under this section, in the City of Annapolis, shall file with the said Mayor and Aldermen an application setting forth the name, place and class or kind of license he desires; and the Mayor and Aldermen shall act upon said application at its next regular or special meeting, and it shall be in the discretion of the Mayor and Aldermen to grant or refuse to issue licenses, and on granting the license by the said Mayor and Aldermen, the Clerk shall issue the same; provided he complies with the provisions of paragraph (d) of this section.

(d) No license shall be issued under this section until the licensee shall have paid to the Treasurer and Collector of the said city, the license fee provided for in this section; and the license may be transferred or assigned to any person or any premises other than the one to whom the license was originally issued, on the approval and consent of the said Mayor and Aldermen.

(e) Every person, firm or corporation in said city, receiving a license under this section, shall frame his license under a glass, and place the same so that it shall at all times be conspicuous and easily read, in the chief place of making his sales; and no license issued in said city under this section shall authorize sale by any person who shall neglect this requirement.

(f) No licensee in said city, under this section, shall sell or furnish to any person any beer, wine or other beverages on the Lord's Day, commonly called Sunday, except if the licensee is a hotel-keeper, an incorporated social club, or a person conducting a bona fide cafe or eating house, he may supply such beverages to be drunk on the premises, to bona fide guests; and any person violating this provision shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined a sum of not less than $50.00 nor more than $200.00, or be imprisoned in jail for not less than thirty days nor more than ninety days, or to be both fined and imprisoned, in the discretion of the court.

(g) The money received by the Treasurer and Collector, on account of license fees under this section, shall be applied to the general uses of said City of Annapolis.

(h) Any person who shall hereafter be convicted by the Circuit Court for Anne Arundel County, of selling beer,
