

wines and other beverages under this section, without a license, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than $100.00 nor more than $500.00, or undergo imprisonment in the jail of Anne Arundel County, or House of Correction, for not less than one month nor more than six months or to be both fined and imprisoned in the discretion of the Court.

(i) Any person, firm or corporation who shall sell or furnish beer, wine or other beverages to any person, firm or corporation, in any manner or means other than provided for in the license issued, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction be fined not less than $100.00 nor more than $500.00, or be confined in the county jail or House of Correction, for not less than three months nor more than six months, or both fined and imprisoned in the discretion of the Court.

(j) Any person, firm or corporation found guilty of violating any of the provisions of this section, or on written complaint signed by five citizens, the Mayor and Aldermen may investigate the charges and if satisfied of the truth of the complaint of conviction, may revoke the license and no further license shall be issued to the party convicted within a period of two years.

(k) All fines paid to the Sheriff of Anne Arundel County under this section, shall be distributed by said Sheriff as follows, to wit: one-half to the Treasurer of Anne Arundel County, to be applied to the court expenses of the county, and the remaining one-half to be turned over to the said City of Annapolis, for the general use of the city.

(l) Nothing in this section shall be construed to repeal or modify any of the provisions contained in, or the penalty imposed by any provisions of the Code of Public Local Laws, or Public Local Laws of this State, forbidding or restricting the sale of intoxicating liquor; or any of the provisions of the Local Code of the City of Annapolis, pertaining to the sale of intoxicating liquors to minors, students of St. John's College, students connected with or attached to the United States Naval Academy at Annapolis, or preparing for admission to said Academy, either for his own use, or for the use of any other person, as provided in Section 54 of this Article.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That this Act is hereby declared to be an emergency law and necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health and safety, and having been passed by a yea and nay vote, supported by