

upon such terms, conditions and regulations as to them may seem proper. They may regulate the keeping of dogs in the town, provide a tax or license therefor, and to provide proper penalties for any person keeping a dog or allowing one to run at large or to remain on his premises in conflict with such regulations; provide for the killing or impounding of all dogs not kept in compliance with such regulations, or found running at large in violation of such regulations. They may provide by ordinances for the opening and closing of streets, and alleys; and the straightening, widening, paving, grading and improving of same, and for such purposes they shall have full power of condemnation to be exercised in accordance with the Maryland Constitution and in the same manner as provided by the Public General Laws of Maryland. The Mayor and Council are hereby authorized and empowered to construct roadways, alleys, curbs, sidewalks and gutters in the said town, when, where, and in the manner to be determined by the Mayor and Council. They may borrow money on the credit of the town for emergency purposes upon making proper provisions for its liquidation, and for this purpose they may execute promissory notes, bonds, or other evidences of indebtedness. The Mayor and Council shall have power to make all necessary regulations as to the notice to property owners of assessments made under this Act. For the purpose of enforcing ordinances the Mayor and Town Council may prescribe minimum and maximum fines and penalties therein, the maximum penalty in any such ordinance not to exceed a fine in amount of one hundred dollars ($100) and confinement in Jail for a period of not more than thirty days, besides costs. Any Justice of the Peace for Prince George's County, Maryland, may impose such fines or penalties for the breach of such ordinances, and in default of payment he may commit the offender to confinement for a period of not more than thirty days in the County Jail. No Police ordinance passed by the Mayor and Town Council shall go into effect until after the expiration of thirty days after its passage, unless otherwise provided by the laws of this State. If within thirty days from the date of its passage a petition protesting against it signed by one-half as many voters as voted at the last general election shall be filed with the Town Clerk-Treasurer, such ordinance shall be suspended, and the Mayor and Council shall reconsider it, and if it be not repealed the Mayor and Council shall submit it to a vote of the duly qualified voters of
