SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, That said bonds shall be known as "Floating Debt Refunding Bonds of Anne Arundel County" and they shall be further identified by the series letter assigned to them respectively and that the said bonds and the interest thereon shall be and remain exempt from state, county and municipal taxes of every kind whatsoever in the State of Maryland.

SEC. 7. And be it further enacted, That the entire amount of coupon bonds to be issued pursuant to the provisions of this Act may be sold at one time or that said bonds may be sold in lesser amounts, but not exceeding in the aggregate the amount authorized hereunder, at any time or times, not later than June 1, 1935, as may be determined by the County Commissioners of Anne Arundel County. Before proceeding to sell any of said bonds, the said County Commissioners of Anne Arundel County shall advertise at least once a week for three successive weeks in one newspaper published in the City of Baltimore, Maryland, and at least once a week for three successive weeks in one newspaper published in Anne Arundel County, Maryland, and by such other advertisement as they shall think proper, that they will be in readiness at a time and place to be named in said advertisement, within fifteen days after the third publication thereof in said newspapers, to receive sealed bids for the bonds, including the amount thereof, described in said advertisement, under such regulations as the said County Commissioners of Anne Arundel County by their order may prescribe. Upon the day mentioned in said advertisement for opening the bids for said bonds as described therein, the County Commissioners of Anne
