

shall annually until all of said bonds issued under the provisions of this Act shall have matured and been paid, levy a tax upon all the assessable property in said County sufficient to pay the annual interest on all of said bonds that may be issued and outstanding as said interest becomes due and payable, and also a tax in each year upon all of said assessable property in said County sufficient to pay the principal of said bonds as said bonds respectively mature and are due and payable.

SEC. 10. And be it further enacted, That such short term notes as may be issued under the provisions of this Act shall be and remain obligations of the County Commissioners of Anne Arundel County, issued upon the full faith and credit of said County and that said County Commissioners of Anne Arundel County shall have the power in their sole discretion to levy a tax upon all the assessable property in said County sufficient to provide funds for the payment of said indebtedness evidenced by said notes or by any renewals thereof or of the interest thereon when due and payable, in the event they elect to provide for the payment of the same rather than to provide for the refunding of said indebtedness through the issue and sale of coupon bonds as provided in this Act, and that in the event said County Commissioners of Anne Arundel County do not issue and sell coupon bonds as provided in this Act for the purpose of refunding said indebtedness on or before June 1, 1933, that then said County Commissioners of Anne Arundel County shall levy a tax upon all the assessable property in said County sufficient to provide funds for the payment of said indebtedness so evidenced by said notes now outstanding or any renewal thereof, or of any notes issued under the provisions of this Act or any renewal or renewals thereof, before the maturity of said notes or of said renewals not later than June 1, 1935, as in this Act provided.

SEC. 11. And be it further enacted, That this Act is hereby declared to be an emergency law and necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health and safety and, having been passed by a yea and nay vote supported by three-fifths of all the members elected to each of the two Houses of the General Assembly, the same shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 21, 1933.
