

said town at the next election; provided however, that if the next election shall occur more than ninety days thereafter the Mayor and Council shall call a special election for the purpose of deciding whether such proposed ordinance shall or shall not become a law, and the same shall become operative or repealed by a majority of the votes cast at this election.

249. The Mayor and Town Council shall have as full power as the State Board of Health, within the boundaries of the said town, for the preservation and promotion of the public health. Health officers appointed by them shall have full power and authority to quarantine and enforce such other preventive measures as are reasonable and necessary. The Mayor and Town Council may adopt and provide an efficient system of drainage; they may adopt suitable measures for the removal of trash ashes, garbage and sewage, and fix the amount to be paid therefor.

253. All taxes and assessments levied by the Mayor and Town Council of Colmar Manor shall be due on the first day of July next succeeding their levy and shall bear interest at the rate of 6 per centum per annum from that date. On such as remain unpaid after the first day of November following there shall accrue in addition to said interest a penalty of one-half of one per cent. for each whole month that may elapse thereafter until paid.

255. The Clerk-Treasurer of said Mayor and Town Council shall prepare, after the first day of February in each year, a list of all taxes and assessments in default upon real estate within the corporate limits of the Town of Colmar Manor, commencing with the tax year 1927. Said list shall set out respectively the name or names of the owner or owners of the real estate so listed, a fair description of each piece of real estate sufficient to notify the owner or owners thereof that it is his or their property which is advertised, the amount of the taxes and/or assessments, interest, penalties and costs for which the same is liable, and a reference to the sub-division in which said real estate is situated; said reference shall be sufficient if made by using the initial or initials of the sub-division, as, for instance, "L" for Lenox. The amount of said taxes and/or assessments, interest, penalties and costs may be indicated by the dollar sign and a decimal point in the same way dollars and
