

CHAPTER 408.

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact with amendments Section 247 of Article 17 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland (1930 Edition), title "Prince George's County," sub-title "Colmar Manor," (as said section was amended by Chapter 37 of the Acts of 1933), eliminating the provision authorizing the Town Police of Colmar Manor to pursue certain violators of the law beyond the town limits.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section 247 of Article 17 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland (1930 Edition), title "Prince George's County," sub-title "Colmar Manor," (as said section was amended by Chapter 37 of the Acts of 1933), be and it is hereby repealed and re-enacted with amendments, to read as follows:

247. The Mayor, with the approval of the majority of the Mayor and Town Council, shall appoint a clerk-treasurer, a solicitor, and a health officer, to hold office for two years or until their successors are appointed and qualified. The Mayor and Town Council shall fix the compensation of each and of all subordinates under them, and shall prescribe their duties, except as herein provided; provided, however, that the compensation of the clerk-treasurer shall not exceed ten per centum of moneys collected by him. They shall attend the meetings of the Mayor and Town Council and perform such duties as they may be directed to perform. The clerk-treasurer shall keep the minutes of the proceedings of the Mayor and Town Council in a well-bound book to be provided by the Mayor and Town Council, which shall be open to inspection by all persons interested therein. He shall receive the taxes and other moneys due the town, keeping a record of each item; shall keep all moneys belonging to the town and disburse the same only in accordance with the regulations and orders of the Mayor and Town Council and perform such other clerical duties as the Mayor and Town Council may direct. The clerk-treasurer shall give bond to the Mayor and Town Council in such penalties and with such sureties as the Mayor and Town Council may require. The Town Police who shall be appointed by the Mayor with the approval of the Town Council, shall preserve the peace and good order of the town and enforce the Public General Laws and local laws of the State of Maryland as well as the ordinances
