

cents are usually written in figures, as, for instance, "$3.50." The said Clerk-treasurer shall publish said list in some newspaper having general circulation in the Town of Colmar Manor once a week for three successive weeks prior to the first Monday in April of each year real estate is advertised to be sold for such taxes and/or assessments. Each piece of real estate so advertised for sale shall bear a charge of one dollar to cover the costs of said advertisement and charge of twenty-five cents to cover the cost of verifying the name or names of the owner or owners of such real estate, and when real estate has been sold under this Act and has not been redeemed before the issuance of the order of publication hereinafter provided, there shall be an additional one dollar charged to each piece of real estate so sold and unredeemed, and these charges shall be included in the report of sale of the Clerk-treasurer of the Mayor and Town Council of Colmar Manor as a charge upon such real estate.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That each section of this Act and every part of each section are hereby declared to be individual sections, and the holding of any section or sections or part or parts thereof to be void, ineffective or unconstitutional for any cause shall not be deemed to affect any other section or part hereof.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That this Act is hereby declared to be an emergency law and necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health and safety, and being passed upon a yea and nay vote, supported by three-fifths of all members elected to each of the two Houses of the General Assembly, the same shall take effect from the date of passage.

Approved March 3, 1933.

CHAPTER 38.

AN ACT to repeal Section 198 of Article 13 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland, title "Harford County," sub-title "Court Library;" said section providing for the payment of fines and recognizances in the augmentation and maintenance of the Court Library.