628. It is further empowered to take care of all persons suffering from accident, sickness or physical or mental infirmity, who are unable to take care of themselves, and if deemed necessary, may have them sent to the Almshouse of Prince George's County, in which case all expenses so incurred shall be repaid to the Mayor and City Council by the County Commissioners of said County, who are hereby authorized and required to levy annually such amount as shall be requisite for reimbursement thereof, and to issue warrants for such purpose, payable to the Mayor and City Council of said town.

JUSTICES OF THE PEACE.

629. The Justices of the Peace for Prince George's County, resident in the town of Laurel, are hereby declared to be conservators of the peace of the town, and it shall be their duty to order the arrest of any person found by them disturbing the peace, quiet or order of the town, or violating any ordinance, resolution or regulation made by the Mayor and City Council. And upon complaint made before any of the Justices of the Peace for said County of the violation of any ordinance, resolution or regulation of the said town, he shall issue process in the name of the Mayor and City Council of Laurel against the party offending, and shall hear and determine the matter as any case arising under the laws of this State, and shall receive the same fees therefor.

630. Any Justice of the Peace having jurisdiction may commit any party fined by him for violation of any ordinance of the Mayor and City Council, or any provision of this act, to a County Jail or to the City Jail provided by the Mayor and City Council for such confinement, in default of the payment of such fine.

In any case, civil or criminal, brought before a Justice of the Peace in Prince George's County in which the Mayor and City Council is a party, any party thereto, upon making an affidavit that the affiant believes a fair trial cannot be had before the said Justice, may have said case removed to another Justice of the Peace of said County, to be se-
