

he will well and faithfully perform the duties and obligations provided herein with regard to cases involving violations of ordinances of the said town. Said bond, if required by the Mayor and Council, shall be filed with the Clerk of said town and the justice of the peace if so required shall furnish said bond before he shall act in his official capacity. Said justice of the peace shall receive the fees already provided for by existing laws and in addition thereto, as compensation for his services in cases involving violations of ordinances of said town, he may receive a salary to be paid by said town, the amount thereof to be determined by the Council with the approval of the Mayor, provided, however, said salary shall not exceed one hundred dollars ($100.00) per month. Said justice of the peace shall collect as part of the costs of cases involving a violation of the ordinances of said town, two and one-half dollars ($2.50) for hearing each said cause; he shall keep a docket of all such cases heard by him and in addition to any reports which he may by existing law be required to make, he shall on or before the fifth day of each month submit a report, under oath, to the Mayor and Council of said town, showing the names, numbers and results of all such cases heard by him during the preceding calendar month and the amounts of costs, fees and fines imposed and collected by him in such cases; upon the making of such report he shall pay over to the Town Clerk of said town all fines, costs, penalties and forfeitures collected by him in such cases. The Mayor and Council of said town shall supply said justice of the peace with all books, papers and forms to be used by him in carrying out the duties imposed upon him by this Act in cases involving violations of the ordinances of said town.

570A. One of the justices of the peace for the seventeenth election district of Prince George's County provided by this Article shall be appointed from and reside in that portion of said election district of said County lying within the bounds of the Town of Takoma Park. Said justice of the peace, in addition to such powers as he may already have under existing law, shall have the same powers, rights, duties, obligations and the same provisions as to emoluments shall apply to him, in respect to cases involving violations within said County of ordinances of said town as are granted to and imposed upon a justice of the peace for the thirteenth election district of Montgomery County by Section 489A of Article 16 hereof, in respect to cases involving violations within Montgomery County of ordinances of said town; provided that if the justice of the