

rowing of such sum or sums of money as the Court may deem adequate and proper to meet the emergency, thereupon the said Mayor and City Council shall be authorized to borrow the same and to pledge the credit of the City to the amount specified by the Court in its Order. There shall be no appeal from the finding of the Circuit Court.

The above provisions are not to be deemed as affecting in any way the validity of any loans heretofore made to the Mayor and Councilmen of Frostburg by virtue of the provisions of Section 145 of Chapter 31 of the Acts of the General Assembly of Maryland of 1922, but any loans heretofore made by the said Mayor and Councilmen of Frostburg and still remaining unpaid may be renewed or paid off in any of the manners herein provided.

If the Mayor or any Councilman or any City employee shall violate any of the provisions of this section, he or they shall, upon trial and conviction, be sentenced to pay a fine of not exceeding One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00), or be sentenced to confinement in the Allegany County Jail for not more than six months, or be both fined and imprisoned, in the discretion of the Court.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act is an emergency law necessary for the preservation of the health and general welfare of the residents of the City of Frostburg, and three-fifths of the members of each House of the General Assembly concurring therein, by yea and nay vote, the same shall be effective from the date of its passage.

Approved April 21, 1933.

CHAPTER 436.

AN ACT to prohibit the County Commissioners of Garrett County from expending for road purposes the funds about to be received from the present county road levy and to provide that said funds shall go into and become part of the general funds of said county and be used for reducing the tax levy to be made by said County Commissioners in April of 1933.

WHEREAS, The County Commissioners of Garrett County did in April, 1932, levy a tax upon the assessable property
