

at the same salary and expense account. That the Clerk of the Police Court shall act as Secretary to the Chief of the Prince George's County Police, as the same may be created by law, and he shall keep the records of the Prince George's County Police, and shall be the general office representative of the same. In the event of the temporary absence of said Clerk of the Police Justice the County Commissioners are hereby authorized, and directed to appoint some suitable person for the time being in the place and stead of the said Clerk, who shall possess the same powers, duties and responsibilities, and who shall receive ratably the same compensation and expense account as herein allowed for the Clerk, to be deducted from the salary and expense account of said Clerk, and who before entering upon the duties of his office shall give a bond in the penalty of five hundred dollars ($500) with the same conditions and for the same uses and purposes as the Clerk is required to give, and at the termination of his said temporary appointment shall at the second meeting of the County Commissioners thereafter make a report, verified under oath, as required of the Clerk whose place he has taken for the time being, and turn over any sum or sums of money he may have collected, which under this Act are directed to be paid to the County Commissioners, or otherwise provided by law.

4. The said Commissioners shall designate one of the said Constables at Large, so appointed, as Chief of the Prince George's County Police at a salary of eighteen hundred and ninety dollars ($1,890.00) per annum, payable in equal monthly instalments and no other fees or compensation whatsoever, except that the said County Commissioners are authorized to allow the said Chief of Police the sum of three hundred dollars ($300.00) per annum, payable in equal monthly instalments, for maintenance and upkeep of an automobile to be used by the Chief of Police and any expenses for uniforms to be worn as the County Commissioners may prescribe for the said Chief of Police. That the Chief of Police, as aforesaid, shall have control and supervision over the other members of the police force and shall assign members of said force to such duties, and to such hours as he may think proper, subject, however, at all times to such rules, orders and regulations as the County Commissioners may from time to time prescribe or ordain.

5. The County Commissioners shall designate two of said police officers, so appointed, as Sergeants of the
