

Article 4 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland (1930 Edition), title "Baltimore City," sub-title "Constables," said new section to be known as Section 206A, to follow immediately after Section 206 of said Article, and to read as follows:

206A. The Chief Constable of the People's Court shall, under the supervision of the said five justices of the peace of the People's Court, have the custody of all the dockets, records and papers of the said justices, and it shall be his duty to see that they are safely and properly kept and preserved; and upon his removal from office, or the termination of his term of office, shall deliver all of said dockets, records and papers to his successor. The said Chief Constable may, with the approval of the justices of the People's Court, destroy or otherwise dispose of all records and papers, exclusive of dockets, after the expiration of twelve years from the time same were filed.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1933.

Approved April 21, 1933.

CHAPTER 462.

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact with amendments Section 19 of Article 27 of Bagby's Annotated Code of Public General Laws of Maryland, 1924 Edition, title "Crimes and Punishments," sub-title "Barratry," prohibiting corporations and associations from holding themselves out as lawyers and from advertising themselves as furnishing legal services, and prohibiting corporations and associations from practicing the legal profession and the sharing of fees by certain corporations, defining the rights of casualty insurance corporations, and providing penalties for violating the provisions of this Act.

(Vetoed)

CHAPTER 463.

AN ACT to add six new sections to Article 89B of the Code of Public General Laws of Maryland, as enacted by Chapter 539 of the Acts of the General Assembly of