

tion in the precinct in which such individual resides and shall be allowed to vote in the special referendum election.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That thirty (30) days after the voters in any herein authorized local option voting units return a majority in favor of the exemption of that section of Montgomery County from the provision of Senate Bill No. 316 as enacted at the 1933 session of the General Assembly, that the law so enacted shall be repealed within that section of Montgomery County and all local laws of Montgomery County that are repealed by the enactment of Senate Bill No. 316 will so be re-enacted and applied to that section of Montgomery County which has voted to repeal the provisions of Senate Bill No. 316.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That said referendum of repeal and the re-enactment thereby of existing local law shall not include or in any way infringe, impune or discontinue any license issued under the terms of Senate Bill No. 316 to a bona fide Country Club located in Montgomery County at the time of the passage of this Act, which Club maintains for the use of its members (1) nine (9) or more holes of golf, (2) two (2) or more tennis courts, (3) a swimming pool, or any two of such three recreational activities and which Club has a bona fide published membership of over one hundred (100), of which membership more than fifty per cent. (50%) are non-residents of Montgomery County.

SEC. 6. And be it further provided, That the Clerk of the Circuit Court and the License Bureau of the Comptroller's office are required and directed to continue to issue the licenses provided under Senate Bill 316 and extensions thereof to any of the herein described Country Clubs under the rules and regulations applied to other portions of Maryland in which the terms of Senate Bill No. 316 continue in force.

SEC. 7. And be it further enacted, That this Act is hereby declared to be an emergency law and necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health and safety, and having been passed upon a yea and nay vote, supported by three-fifths of all of the members elected to each of the two Houses of the General Assembly, the same shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 5, 1933.