

or they shall appeal, he, she, it or they shall enter into recognizance with security to be approved by the Justice of the Peace; and in every such case the appeal shall be taken within ten days after judgment entered.

Section 710. Any Justice of the Peace in and for Prince George's County, upon information made under oath or examination reduced to writing that any person in manufacturing, selling, offering or exposing, or storing for sale or barter, any intoxicating liquors, contrary to the provisions of this Act, shall issue his warrant requiring the persons suspected to be arrested, and the said building or other place to be searched, and the parties found therein to be arrested and brought before him as aforesaid, and in such warrant shall require the officer to whom it is directed to seize or hold all liquors to be found in such house or building, and also vessels, bar fixtures, screens, glasses, bottles, jugs and other appurtenances apparently used in the sale, or storing of such liquors contrary to law, and at the trial of any person or persons charged with the violations of any of the provisions of this Act, the affidavit of the facts stated under oath on examination before such Justice of the Peace, upon which he shall have issued his warrant as aforesaid, shall be produced at the trial of the case.

Section 711. If, upon examination of such person, it shall appear to such justice that there is probable cause to believe him guilty of the offense charged, the accused shall be required to enter into a recognizance, with sufficient securities, in the sum of not more than five hundred dollars to appear before the next term of the Circuit Court of Prince George's County to answer an indictment if one be preferred against him.

Section 712. If the Sheriff of Prince George's County, or any of his deputies, or one of the constables of said county or any officer having constabulary powers shall have reasonable cause to believe that any person or persons are handling, carrying or bringing into Prince George's County intoxicating liquors in quantity exceeding one quart for any purpose whatsoever contrary to the provisions of this Act, it shall be the duty of said Sheriff, deputy sheriff, constable or officer to arrest such person, which arrest may be made without warrant, if the offense is committed in the presence of such officer,
