

Fifth: That he intends to carry on the business authorized by the license for himself or for a firm, corporation or association and not as an agent of any other individual, and that if licensed he will not carry on such business as the agent of any other individual.

Sixth: That the applicant intends to superintend in person the management of the business licensed and if so licensed he will superintend in person the management of the business. If the license is issued to a corporation or association the application must specify the name of the individual who will superintend or manage the business as specified in this sub-section.

This application must be verified by the affidavit of the petitioner made before a Notary Public or other person duly authorized by law to administer oaths. If any false statement is made in any part of said application the applicant or applicants shall be deemed guilty of perjury, applicant or applicants shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof the applicant shall be subjected to the penalties provided for in Section 226H of this Act and said license shall be revoked and no license shall be issued to applicant or applicants, so convicted, for a period of one year from the date of said conviction.

226E. All applicants for licenses shall pay to the Clerk of the Circuit Court for Howard County a license fee of fifteen dollars ($15.00) per annum, the same to be paid before the license is issued. Every person receiving a license under this sub-title shall frame said license under a glass and place the same so that it shall at all times be conspicuous and easily read, in the chief place of making sales, and no license issued under this sub-title shall authorize sales by any person who shall neglect this requirement. Each license shall be good for one year from May 1st, and all licenses shall expire on April 30th after date of issue. Provided, however, that any license issued on and after April 7, 1933, shall expire on April 30, 1934.

226F. No person, firm, association or corporation shall sell or offer for sale by retail within the limits of Howard County any beverage without having first obtained a license so to do. No brewer, wholesaler, or distributor shall sell or deliver any beverage within Howard County to any person other than a licensee.

226G. No brewer, manufacturer, wholesaler or distributor shall have any direct or indirect financial interest in the business of any licensee.
