

temporary licenses shall be based upon the fees in this Act provided, but shall be proportioned to the length of time which said temporary licenses actually run. Every petition for a license to sell beer or other beverage of alcoholic content must be made by an individual, whether such petition is filed on behalf of the petitioner, a partnership, or a corporation. If made on behalf of a partnership, the petitioner must be a partner; and if made on behalf of a corporation, the petitioner must be the president or a vice-president thereof. In the case of a license granted to an individual as a member of a partnership or as the president or a vice-president of a corporation, the said partnership or corporation shall be liable for any fine and costs which the said licensee may be required to pay; and the amount thereof may be recovered before any court having jurisdiction, without prejudice to the prosecution of said licensee.

675. Said petition shall contain (1) the name and residence of the applicant and how long applicant has resided there; (2) the particular place for which a license is desired, designating the same by street and number, if practicable, and, if not, by such other apt description as definitely locates it; (3) the kind of license desired; (4) the name of the owner of the premises upon which the business licensed is to be carried on; (5) a statement that the applicant is a citizen of the United States and a resident of the State of Maryland; (6) that the applicant has not had a license for the sale of beer or other beverages of alcoholic content in this State revoked, or, if the applicant has at any time had a license for the sale of beer or other beverages of alcoholic content in this State revoked, a full statement shall be made of the circumstances attendant upon such revocation; (7) that the applicant has not been convicted of any felony within one year preceding the filing of said petition; (8) that the applicant will not knowingly sell or allow to be sold in the said house or on the said premises beer or other beverages of alcoholic content on Sunday, or on election days, unless permitted by law, or to minors at any time, or allow a minor to drink beer or other beverages of alcoholic content in said house or on said premises; that the applicant will not keep or permit to be kept a bawdy house in the said house or on the said premises, or the gathering together or the visitation to said house or premises of women for lewd or immoral purposes; (9) that no brewer or distiller of beer or any other beverage of alcoholic content has any interest, financial or otherwise, in the premises upon or in which the business
