

to be licensed is to be carried on; (10) that no brewer or distiller of beer or any other beverage of alcoholic content has any interest, financial or otherwise, in the business which is licensed to be carried on; (11) that the applicant will not thereafter convey or grant to any brewer or distiller of beer or any other beverage of alcoholic content any interest in either the said business which is licensed to be carried on, or in the property in which said business is licensed to be carried on, or in any other property at which said business may thereafter be carried on; (12) that the applicant has, at the time of making such application, no indebtedness or other financial obligation to any brewer or distiller of beer or other beverage of alcoholic content, and will not, during the period the said license shall be in force contract any financial obligation to any brewer or distiller of beer or other beverage of alcoholic content other than for the purchase of beer or other beverage of alcoholic content; (13) this petition must be verified by the affidavit of the applicant, made before a notary public; if any false statement is made in any part of said petition, the license granted or issued to the applicant shall be revoked by the Board of License Commissioners, and the applicant shall also be deemed guilty of perjury, and upon indictment and conviction thereof he shall be subject to the penalties provided by law for that crime.

676. There shall be annexed to this petition a certificate signed by at least ten respectable qualified voters, residing or doing business in the ward in which the petitioner asks to do business, stating the residence or place of business of each person, certifying and setting forth that they have been acquainted with the petitioner for (specifying the length of such acquaintance), that they have good reason to believe that all the statements contained in the petition are true, and they therefore pray that the prayer of the said petitioner be granted and the license issued as prayed for. This section shall apply only to petitions for licenses to sell beer or any other beverage of alcoholic content at retail for consumption on the premises.

677. The said Board shall publicly hear petitions from residents of the ward or persons living or doing business in the vicinity of the place for which any license is prayed, in addition to that of the petitioner, in favor of, and remonstrances against, the granting of said license; and in all cases shall refuse the same whenever in the opinion of the said Board the petitioner is not a fit person to whom
