

such license should be granted; and if sufficient cause shall at any time be shown to the said Board that the party licensed was guilty of any fraud in procuring such license, or has violated any of the conditions or restrictions of his license, or has violated any law of the State or of the United States, or has violated any of the rules, regulations or practices adopted by the Board, the said Board may, after giving notice to the person so licensed, revoke said license; and the Criminal Court of the City may in like manner revoke said license if the party should be convicted before it of any such violation.

678. It shall be unlawful for any brewer or distiller of beer or other beverage of alcoholic content to have any interest, financial or otherwise, in any premises upon or in which beer or any other beverage of alcoholic content is sold, or in any business required to be licensed hereunder of selling beer or other beverage of alcoholic content; and it shall be unlawful for any brewer or distiller of beer or other beverage of alcoholic content to lend money, or make any gift, or offer any gratuity to the holder of a license issued under the provisions of this Act. Any person, firm or association violating any of the provisions of this section shall, upon conviction thereof, be punished by a fine of not less than Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00), nor more than Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00), or by imprisonment of not more than two (2) years, or by both fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court. A corporation convicted of any offense under the provisions of this section shall be fined not more than Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00), and its president or such other officials as may be responsible for the conduct and management thereof may be imprisoned not more than two (2) years, in the discretion of the court.

679. Any club, society or association whatever, whether incorporated or not, now in existence or hereafter to be formed, desiring to sell beer or any other beverage of alcoholic content to its members or guests, in order to do so shall first obtain a club license from the said Board upon its application therefor to be made by a petition to be signed and sworn to in due form of law on its behalf by its president or secretary. Every such petition shall affirmatively show: First, that the applicant is a bona fide social club or society or association, composed of reputable citizens over twenty-one years of age, duly organized with officers and a constitution or by-laws, that by the terms