

for not less than three (3) months nor more than twelve (12) months, or by both fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court.

Any corporation convicted of any of the offenses in this section above enumerated shall be punished by a fine of not less than Twenty-five Dollars ($25.00) nor more than One Hundred Dollars ($100.00); and upon conviction of a second offense under the provisions of this Act as above enumerated, shall be fined not less than One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) nor more than Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00); and the president or such other official or officials as may be responsible for the conduct and management of said corporation may also be imprisoned, upon the conviction of said corporation for a second offense as aforesaid, not less than three (3) months nor more than twelve (12) months.

Upon any second conviction as above set forth, the license of the party or parties holding the same or interested therein shall be immediately revoked by said Board, and no license shall be thereafter issued to or for the benefit of any of said parties within two (2) years from the time of such revocation.

The license of any person who permits minors to frequent or loiter around his place, or disreputable or disorderly persons to make it a customary place of visitation or resort, may be revoked at any time by said Board.

Nothing in this Act shall be construed to repeal or modify any of the provisions contained in, or penalties imposed by, any law of this State forbidding or restricting the sale of beer or other beverage of alcoholic content on a day on which elections are held.

687. Upon complaint or allegation by any qualified voter of Baltimore City who shall give security for the cost of prosecution that any license has been corruptly or knowingly issued by said Board to any person who has not complied with the provisions of this Act, it shall be the duty of the State's Attorney to file in the Criminal Court of Baltimore City an information against said Board and against said licensee; and if it shall be found that such license was improperly issued, said license shall be revoked, and the members of said Board who voted in favor of issuing said license shall, in addition to the other penalties for malfeasance in office, be removed from said office.

688. For the purpose of all hearings and inquiries which the said Board is authorized to hold and make, it is hereby authorized to issue summons for witnesses and administer
