

to, or for the use of, the same purchaser or purchasers within a period of twenty-four hours, which exceed in the aggregate the limits herein fixed, shall be taken as prima facie evidence of an intent to violate the terms of such license.

Distillers and brewers shall require no license for the conduct of their business or to sell beer or other beverages of alcoholic content in wholesale quantities as herein defined; but distillers and brewers shall not be entitled to have or exercise any license for the sale of beer or other beverages of alcoholic content for consumption on the premises.

No license shall be issued under the provisions of this Act to wholesale or retail druggists, but nothing herein contained shall limit or restrict the right of druggists or apothecaries to furnish, sell, compound or mix liquors upon the written prescription of a regular physician.

690. Any holder of a license to sell beer or other beverages of alcoholic content may be permitted by said Board, in their discretion, to sell or assign said license to another person, to be used at the same or another place of business, or to transfer his said license to another place of business; provided that the fitness and propriety of said intended purchaser or assignee and of said intended new place of business shall be first approved by said Board upon due application therefor, recommendation by qualified voters, advertisement of same in newspapers, etc., as in case of an original application for such license. Such sale or assignment or transfer when granted by said Board shall be indorsed upon the license by the said Board, which shall be entitled to receive a fee of fifty cents therefor (to be paid over by said Board to the Bureau of Receipts), and the same shall then take effect. And whenever the said Board may be satisfied that any license has been lost or destroyed or that any licensee has transferred or assigned his license to another person, and the said transfer or assignment has been duly approved by the Board in the manner above provided for, and the original licensee withholds said license from the person or persons to whom he has assigned or transferred the same, and refuses to deliver or surrender said license, the said Board shall have the power to revoke and cancel said original license and to issue a duplicate license in lieu thereof to such transferee upon the payment of the aforesaid fee of fifty cents (to be paid over to the Bureau of Receipts as aforesaid), without any additional license fee. And if any license shall be in course of trans-
