

able form, printed or painted on metal, in such a manner as to clearly identify the license year in which issued, and for each such liquor license tag applied for by and issued to the holder of a brewer's license there must be paid the sum of twenty-five dollars to said clerk.

429. If any person shall hereafter be convicted of selling spirituous, fermented or intoxicating liquors, beer, ale, porter, wine or fermented beverage or liquor of any kind having a greater percentage of alcohol by volume than one-half of one per cent for beverage purposes without having procured a license therefor under and in accordance with the provisions of this sub-title, he shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than three hundred dollars, and undergo imprisonment in jail or in the Maryland House of Correction for not less than six months.

431. If any person having a license under the provisions of this sub-title shall sell or barter any spirituous, fermented or intoxicating liquors, beer, ale, porter, wine or fermented beverage or liquor of any kind having a greater percentage of alcohol by volume than one-half of one per cent for beverage purposes to any person who is a minor, or under twenty-one years of age, or shall sell or barter to any person any such beer or liquors for the purpose of being drunk by such person who is a minor or under twenty-one years of age, or shall give to any person who is a minor or under twenty-one years of age any such beer or liquors, or allow upon the premises occupied by him any person who is under twenty-one years of age to drink any such beer or liquors sold or bartered, or given by him, he shall on conviction, be punished in the manner prescribed in Section 426 hereof for the violation of said section, and if he be convicted a second time of the offense prohibited by this section, in addition to the punishment aforesaid, his license shall be revoked, forfeited and suppressed.

432. All moneys paid to the said clerk for license fees under the provisions of this sub-title shall be paid by him to the Treasurer of Baltimore County for county uses; provided, however, that the clerk of the court shall be entitled to retain 5 per cent of the gross license fees for the collection of same, to be accounted for as other fees of his office.

433. The provisions of this sub-title shall not be taken or construed to authorize the issue of license to sell spirit-