

380C. The County Commissioners of Caroline County are authorized to promulgate rules and regulations, not inconsistent with the law, for the issuance of licenses, and for the operation of all business by licensees. Said regulations may be modified from time to time as may be deemed desirable.

380D. Any person who shall violate any of the provisions of this sub-title shall, upon conviction by a court of competent jurisdiction, be punished by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars ($1000) or imprisoned in jail for one year, or both fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court, and in case of a licensee his license shall be revoked for a period of one year. If any licensee shall willfully violate the regulations duly issued and promulgated by the County Commissioners of Caroline County, the Commissioners may, after proper hearing, revoke the license for a period of one year. In case any licensee is convicted of the violation of the terms of this Act the Court shall immediately declare his license revoked and notify the County Commissioners accordingly. Any licensee who shall sell or permit the sale of any alcoholic beverages not authorized under the terms of this Act on his premises or in connection with his business or otherwise shall, upon conviction, forfeit his license and shall in addition thereto be fined one thousand dollars ($1000) or imprisoned for one year, or both fined and imprisoned, in the discretion of the court.

380E. The State's Attorney of Caroline County, the Sheriff of said County, the Constables of the several Districts therein and the town officers of Denton are all specifically charged with the enforcement of the provisions of this sub-title and the prosecution of those charged with the violation of the provisions thereof.

380F. The funds derived from the sale of the said licenses in Caroline County less expenses shall be paid to the Treasurer of Caroline County.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That Sections 375, 376, 377, 378, 379, 380, 380A, 380B, 380C, 380D, 380E and 380F shall not become effective until the same shall be submitted at the next special or general election held in said County to the qualified voters of said Caroline County for their adoption or rejection. There shall be printed on the official ballots used at said election on separate lines a
